

Department of Assamese

H.C.D.G. College, Nitaipukhuri

Program Outcomes:

Three years Degree course in Assamese (Honours & Elective), CBCS

After successful completion of the program in Assamese (Honours, CBCS), It is expected that a student will be able--

1. To know about the origin and development of Assamese language and literature.
2. To know about the scientific study of language with special reference to the study of Assamese grammar, syntax, phonetics and lexicon.
3. To know about various literary theories both from the Indian and western perspectives.
4. To know about the classification of literature and its types or genres with special reference to the Assamese literature.
5. To know about the history of Assamese poem, short story, novel, drama etc, including its origin, development, trends and tendencies.
6. To know about the culture of Assam as well as to know about various ethnic groups of Assam.
7. Student will able to learn about the theory and practice of comparative literature.
8. Students will able to develop a concept of 'World Literature' with special reference to some selective writings.
9. Students will able to learn how to prepare a project report.

After successful completion of the Skill Enhancement Course in Assamese (AECC-2), it is expected that a student will be able--

1. To know about verbal and no-verbal communication.
2. Students will develop their communication skill through the Assamese language.
3. Student will learn about formal and informal communication.

HoD

Department of Assamese

