

The Research and Development Cell of H.C.D.G College in collaboration with Department of Education organized field based study at Nitaipukhuri of Sivasagar district on 7th March 2026. The study was undertaken over the area of Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE). The title of the project report i.e., “The Role of Anganwadi workers in child Development under ICDS: A study in Nitaipukhuri areas of Sivasagar district of Assam”. The study focused about the early childhood care and education in particular and to create awareness and interest in research among the students of B.A. 6th Semester of Education Department in general. The students of B. A. 6th Semester of Education department actively engaged themselves in completion of this project report.

