Summer Camp 2025

A summer campaign 'CAMaL ka Camp 2025' was organized by Sivasagar, Assam branch of Pratham Education Foundation in partnership with Samagra Shiksha, Assam. Pratham Education Foundation is largest non-governmental organizations of India established in 1995 in Mumbai. A training programme was organized by them at HCDG College for the students of HS and undergraduate students on 25th June 2025. Dipshikha Neog and 3 trainers attended the meeting. It was a community based learning camp where students learned the crucial role of a teacher in shaping meaningful classroom experience. The programme was organized by Internship coordinator Leena Dutta. Selected students are registered as volunteer for teaching in nearby schools in summer break of July 2025. It aims to teach foundational literacy and numeracy between 6-14 age groups. A total number of 14 students from higher secondary and 18 students from undergraduate level joined in the programme. A manual book 'kamalor hibir' was distributed among students to use as learning material in teaching. After completion of teaching activity, they were certified by the Foundation.
